Art the Mouse

Color and learn about landscapes with Art the Mouse.

Hi, my name is Art
and I live in the Hunter
Museum of American Art.

I have my very own apartment in the museum's mansion.

Sometimes, I like to sneak out of my apartment to go look at the artwork.

This is one of my favorite paintings. It is called A Symbol and it is a landscape painting.

Landscapes are paintings, drawings, or photographs of nature.

This is a landscape I drew. I think I did a good job. A really important part of a landscape is the horizon line. A horizon line is the line between the sky and ground in an artwork. Can you find the horizon line in my drawing?

I would love to see your artwork.
You can draw your own landscape here. Do not forget the horizon line.
